SQ3R METHOD OF READING

There are various ways to read books. The one method many of my students have had the most success is the “SQ3R” method. Here is how it works. This method is for you to (1) save time and (2) earn better grades.

• SURVEY OR SKIM •

When a reading is assigned, scan it over first very quickly to get an idea of what it is about. Look at the pictures, graphs, maps, etc. (In athletics this is like conditioning or stretching).

• QUESTION •

You are already doing this step as you skim the material. What is the book/reading dealing with? This step gets your mind ready to look at the topic or subject.

(In athletics, this is like questioning yourself about how you feel while you are stretching and getting ready to play or practice).

• READ WITH A PENCIL OR PEN •

YOU CANNOT MARK UP/HIGHLIGHT/UNDERLINE THIS STATE-OWNED BOOK!

This is how you actually read the book in order to recall vital information.

● In books you own, underline with a highlighter or pencil/pen the key names or events or topic sentences in each paragraph. Identify the key sentence each paragraph has.

● In books you rent or borrow (such as school textbooks or school paperbacks), copy key names or sentences in your notebook. List the page number to help you find the material again.

(In athletics, this is similar to the way coaches “fine tune” athletes or teams during practice or how an athlete works on major aspects of his game during a practice session).

• REVIEW •

To study for an exam on the reading, you do not have to re-read the entire book all over again. Just simply study the notes you wrote down or the material you highlighted/underlined.

(In athletics, this is similar to reviewing game films. Not all plays are analyzed - just the plays with key accomplishments or errors).

• RECITE •

This is the payoff! This is when you actually take the quiz, test, or examination.

(In athletics, this is hitting the ball, shooting the jumper or puck, pinning your opponent, etc.)
