(Guest's Name) (School)

St. Edward High School must uphold Christian moral principles in regard to the behavior of the students that attend school activities. Proper behavior and dance conduct are required. Sexually explicit dancing is prohibited. Small purses or clutches are acceptable - large purses will be searched. Students who violate these principles are subject to immediate dismissal from the dance, a call to their parents, and/or a call to their school. In case of any unlawful behavior, police officers at the dance will immediately be notified.

I understand that all St. Edward High School rules and regulations will be in effect during the dance. In the event that school personnel determine that I am in violation of any school rule or regulation, I understand that I may be removed from the premises and, in certain circumstances, referred to the police.
